Jacksonville, Fla. – September 24, 2015 – Jimerson & Cobb managing partner Charles Jimerson has been named to the Jacksonville Business Journal's 2015 Veterans of Influence List. The list honors veterans in the community that are making a positive impact professionally and personally in the community.

Jimerson, a veteran of the United States Air Force, will join all the honorees at an Oct. 1 breakfast at the Marriott Southpoint in Jacksonville and will be featured in the Friday, Oct. 2, edition of the Jacksonville Business Journal.

“My tenure in the U.S. military instilled deep core values that translate to every part of life, most notably as a steward and trustee of the city of Jacksonville,” said Jimerson. “Being named to this list is quite an honor, and I feel so thankful to be included with such esteemed company.”

While attending Campbell University, Jimerson contemporaneously served as an active duty combat meteorologist in the U.S.A.F., participating in various worldwide operational missions and earning Airman of the Year honors. During his tenure, Jimerson was the youngest operationally certified meteorological forecaster in U.S. Air Force history.
