TO THE BUSINESS JOURNALS' INFLUENCERS: LAW 100

Jimerson & Cobb, P.A., is a business law, creditors' rights, construction litigation and community association law practice

Jacksonville, Fla. – July 19, 2018 – Charles B. Jimerson was one of the top 100 notable attorneys in the United States identified by editors and staff writers from 40 Business Journal publications across the country, including the Jacksonville Business Journal. This selection was based on his impact on business and legal matters in communities across the nation.

Attorneys on the list were considered key leaders to know for entrepreneurs and companies who are trying to grow their business in existing markets, or planning to expand into new locations. A copy of the full list of 100 attorneys can be downloaded from here.

“Being selected for the Business Journals’ Influencers list reflects much of our firm’s promise to clients,” remarked Managing Partner Charles Jimerson. “Specifically, that they can expect exceptional service through competent, reliable and highly effective legal representation. Receiving this award is a testament to the work the firm has put in to positively impact the business community we serve and the communities we live in. On a personal level, I’ve found that you will never influence the world by trying to be like everyone else. Throughout my life and business career, I’ve tried to pave my own path rather than follow the beaten trail. More often than not, it has worked out for me. My belief that life is worth living has helped to establish that fact for me.”

Charles B. Jimerson has received multiple local and state-wide business and legal awards, including being named to Legal Elite and Super Lawyer’s lists for every year in the past decade. Jimerson & Cobb, P.A. has been recognized as one of the fastest growing companies and law firms in locally, regional and national publications.
